

St Catherine's C of E Curriculum Statement

At St Catherine's Church of England School, we strive to educate our children, to realise their aspirations and to contribute positively to society, guided by our Christian principles.

Curriculum intent <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What is the intent of our curriculum design and how does this underpin our core values and ethos? 	Curriculum implementation How is the curriculum implemented year on year, what knowledge, skills and attitudes are we expecting the children to gain during their time with us?	Curriculum impact What will be the impact on this teaching and learning within the wider curriculum?
The intent of our curriculum is to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> be broad and balanced. inspire pupils to learn. be led by pupil interest. ensure the range of subjects helps pupils acquire knowledge, understanding and skills in all aspects of their education. incorporate opportunity to apply English and Maths learning with independence in a range of subjects. develop, guided by 	Linked documents: Curriculum Policy http://www.stcatherinescofe.co.uk/uploadpdf/curriculum-overview/Curriculum%20Policy.pdf Teaching and Learning Policy http://www.stcatherinescofe.co.uk/uploadpdf/curriculum-overview/Teaching%20and%20Learning%20Policy.pdf We implement our curriculum guided by the above policies. Each term pupils are asked about their learning interests. Teachers then plan using the National curriculum age related objectives and our school schemes of learning themed learning around these pupil interests. Planning in the school requires teachers to plan specifically for cross-curricular learning, outdoor learning and opportunities to apply English and maths learning in other subjects. The school, in addition supports the enrichment of our curriculum in the following ways:	Evidence of impact: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Current data report - Pupil conferencing - Book Scrutiny - Learning Walks - Lesson Observations - External Monitoring visits - Curriculum long term planning overviews - Curriculum Monitoring and evidence collation - Photographic records Impact: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Throughout each year group and across the curriculum, including in English and mathematics, current pupils make sustained progress, developing excellent knowledge, understanding

the school's Christian ethos, pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development and, within this, the promote fundamental British values. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • relate learning now to preparation to contribute positively to society in the future and within the world of work as adults. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 50 things book • Residential trips for Year 5 and 6 • Class trips • Outdoor learning – Forest School • 30 minutes daily activity • School pets – chickens and guinea pigs • Extra-curricular clubs • LC Sporting events • Youth Council • School council • Youth Speaks competitions • Whole class music lessons – keyboards and drumming • Thrive Therapy • Swimming Lessons • Annual Shakespeare Project • Opera Project • Whole School Church visits • Whole School Performances • Outdoor learning week • Annual STEM Engineering Project • Weekly Maths Challenge • Collective Worship led by a range of community members • Community Lunches • Visits to local residential homes • Run a business project • Charity events termly • Termly charity events • Sports Competitions/day • Celebration of significant national events – eg. Garden party for Royal wedding/Olympics, etc • Heritage Week • Spirituality Day 	and skills, considering their different starting points. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The progress across the curriculum of disadvantaged pupils and pupils who have special educational needs and/or disabilities currently on roll is improving towards that of other pupils with the same starting points. • Pupil conferencing the significant majority of pupils enjoy being at school and enjoy their learning. • All pupils are challenged within their learning in all lessons. • Pupils effectively apply their learning across a range of subjects. • Pupils can articulate their learning – what they are good at and what their next steps are. • Pupils understand the importance of daily activity in maintaining a healthy lifestyle. • Pupils can articulate their understanding of the school's vision and ethos. • Pupils have a developing
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Regular cooking activities• Creation of Creative Learning Hub and Outdoor Learning Hub• Use of key English texts, related to learning themes in other subjects, to broaden knowledge and vocabulary	spirituality within the context of their daily lives within school demonstrated through the events, CW feedback and RE lessons notes made. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pupils understanding of their heritage is growing through the events planned.
--	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------